WITH YOU, WE CAN DO MORE.

OUR MISSION

The National Art Education Foundation (NAEF) invests in innovative initiatives to support instructional practice, research, and leadership in visual arts education.

OUR VISION

As an independent, philanthropic organization, NAEF supports a wide variety of professional activities, including support for visual art educators to participate in professional development programs; the promotion of visual arts education as an integral part of the curriculum; the exploration of new models of visual arts instruction; the promotion of the teaching of art through activities related to the instructional process, curriculum, student learning, student assessment, management, or discipline; the purchase of equipment and/or instructional resources; and conducting research in visual arts education. NAEF is a sister organization to the National Art Education Association (NAEA) and provides support for a variety of visual arts education programs for the Association and its members.

NAEF has supported over 300 projects since its inception in 1985.

HOW IS THE MONEY USED?

Approximately $50,000 is allocated to NAEF grant recipients annually in five grant categories. Requests total approximately $200,000 per year.

NAEA supports NAEA Leadership Initiatives including the 1st National Leadership Conference, the NAEA School for Art Leaders, the NAEA Research Commission, and the NAEA Research Pre-Conference, totaling over $400,000 since March 2011.

NAEF grants are awarded to NAEA members, including student and retired members, state/province associations and recognized affiliates.

NAEF is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization: All donations are tax-deductible.

100% of gifts are allocated to Grants and Leadership Initiatives.
100% of NAEF Trustees donate to NAEF.
