APA Reference Style

PERIODICALS

Example:

- Pay close attention to the punctuation, spacing, capitalization
- “xx” is the volume number, and “y” is the issue number (when there is one)
- If there is a DOI (digital object identifier), add to the end (“doi:xx.xxxxxxxxxxx”)
- If no DOI, and it was retrieved online, add to the end (“Retrieved from www.xxxxxxxxx”); do not indicate date retrieved
- For a daily periodical like a newspaper, date should be expressed as “(year, Month day)” or “(1993, September 30)”

BOOKS

Author, A. A. (year). Title of work. Location: Publisher.

Author, A. A., & Author, B. B. (year). Title of chapter. In A. Editor & B. Editor (Eds.), Title of book (pp. xxx-xxx). Location: Publisher.

Examples:

- Pay close attention to the punctuation, spacing, capitalization
- If there is a DOI, or it was retrieved online, same formatting rules above apply
- For publisher location, format is “City, ST” (or “New York, NY”)

For further questions, consult 6th Edition of the APA Style Guide or www.apastyle.org