

REVIEW QUESTIONS: WHAT CAN EDUCATION LEARN FROM THE VISUAL ARTS?

Videos often can be used to spark discussion. For training purposes, we are making copies of the video available for you both with questions embedded within the presentation, and with other suggestions for follow-up questions to consider. If you are convening a small group, you may want to show them this version of the videos to set the stage for later discussions. You also can stop the video when question appear, discuss them and then resume watching the video.

Click here to see the video:

http://naeworkspace.org/aspen_video/finals/video/AS_Elliot.html

Focus Questions (available above) Embedded in “What Can Education Learn from the Arts?” video.

- What can education learn from the arts?
- How can we make the case that every child deserves the right to be able to paint, to see and to make beautiful things?

Additional Questions for Follow-Up Discussion

- (For non-artists) How are you like an artist in your daily working life?
- Could you function more like an artist with better skills and more training? How could it help you to do your job more effectively?
- How do we build a justifiable case for creativity in our world? For all children?