

National Coalition for Core Arts Standards

Educational Use

- a. State Education Agencies Directors of Arts Education (SEADAE) and SEADAE member states have unrestricted rights to copy, duplicate, reproduce or distribute intellectual property to meet their needs serving as State Directors of Arts Education.
- b. Arts Educators teaching in any art discipline (dance, media arts, music, theatre, and visual arts) and teachers in public and private education (PreK-12, higher education, educational outreach centers of performing arts organizations, and community/cultural arts centers) may duplicate the standards as they appear on the NCCAS website without having to request permission from SEADAE.

COPYRIGHT PERMISSION REQUESTS & GUIDELINES

The following guidelines apply to all commercial or non-commercial entities seeking to duplicate, distribute, disseminate (electronically or otherwise), or make derivative works from the NCCAS National Core Arts Standards that may result in formal or informal publications, electronic tools or works (books, articles, newspapers, and journals), or for use in professional development and training, not exempted by educational use above.

Written permission from the State Education Agency Directors of Arts Education (SEADAE) is required whenever copyrighted material, beyond that destined for educational use as above, is duplicated or disseminated, electronically or otherwise. Permission to reprint is not official until SEADAE and the entity requesting permission have signed the Application for Copyright Permission, and payment is submitted. Permission requests are subject to a processing fee of $25.

Reprint Permission Process

1. Read the NCCAS Copyright Permission Guidelines (p. 1-3) and Application for Copyright Permission (p. 4) contained herein.
2. For all instances needing copyright permission, complete the online Application for Copyright Permission found at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/NCCAScopyright>. If for any reason you are unable to access the form please contact projectmanager@seadae.org.
3. After you have completed the online application, please mail your $25.00 application fee payable to: SEADAE to the address below:
