

Editor-in-Chief

Colleen M. Conway
University of Michigan

Executive Editors

Michael A. Butera
National Association for Music Education

Marcie Granahan
American Alliance for Theatre and Education

Susan McGreevy-Nichols
National Dance Education Organization

Deborah B. Reeve
National Art Education Association

Arts Education Policy Review

An international forum for the exchange of ideas on arts education policy

SPECIAL SOCIETY RATE

Members of the following societies are eligible to subscribe to Arts Education Policy Review at the special rate of $55 for personal print & online annual subscriptions:

- Americans for the Arts
- American Alliance for Theatre & Education
- National Association for Music Education
- National Art Education Association
- National Dance Education Organization

Arts Education Policy Review (AEPR) presents discussion of major policy issues in arts education in the United States and throughout the world. Addressing education in music, visual arts, theatre, and dance, the journal presents a variety of views and emphasizes critical analysis. Its goal is to produce the most comprehensive and rigorous exchange of ideas available on arts education policy. Policy examinations from multiple viewpoints are a valuable resource not only for arts educators, but also for administrators, policy analysts, advocacy groups, parents, and audiences—all those involved in the arts and concerned about their role in education.

TO ORDER:

To subscribe to Arts Education Policy Review at the special subscription rate of $55, please contact: societies@tandf.co.uk

Subscriptions purchased at the personal rate are strictly for personal, noncommercial use only. The reselling of personal subscriptions is prohibited. Personal subscriptions must be purchased with a personal check or credit card. Proof of personal status may be requested.